PROFESSIONAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Philosophy and Approach to Counseling
My approach is eclectic and multi-disciplinary. It includes a strong base of clinical skills in a psychodynamic mode along with an emphasis in interpersonal communication, psychoeducation and transpersonal psychology. I work closely with the client – setting goals and expectations together and regularly reviewing them. When I see evidence of a biological basis for symptoms, I work with a physician or naturopath. I refer often to other community resources including education systems, support groups, spiritual resources and various healthcare professionals. My training has focused on couples counseling, and I have extensive training with PAIRS International, Inc., and am a Master PAIRS Teacher. I am a trained IMAGO therapist (the work of Harville Hendrix), and have studied extensively with Drs. Hal and Sidra Stone in couple's work.

Formal Education and Training
- Bachelor of Science in Community Service & Public Affairs, University of Oregon, 1977
- Master of Science in Counseling, Oregon State University, 1983
- Three-year post-graduate training in Counseling, Oregon State University, 1983
- Completed 90 hours of credit toward doctoral degree
- Completed one-year program with Institute of Transpersonal Psychology receiving a Certificate in Transpersonal Psychology, 1987
- Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist #T0380 – this carries continuing education requirements of 20 hours each year
- National Certified Clinical Mental Health Counselor #04133 by the National Board of Certified Counselors – this carries continuing education requirements of 100 hours in a five-year period
- Certified counseling supervisor since 1992
- Board certified Life Coach

Code of Ethics
As a licensee of the Oregon State Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics.

Continuing Education/Supervision
To maintain my license I am required to participate in 20 hours of annual continuing education. I seek training to improve both the art and science of my work. I consult with a Clinical Supervisor on a regular basis, as well as consulting with other professionals as needed.

Client Rights
As a client of an Oregon licensee you have the following rights:

1. To expect that the licensee has met minimal qualifications of training and experience as required by state law.
2. To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee.
3. To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics.
4. To report complaints to the Board
5. To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services.
6. To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions:
   + Reporting suspected child abuse
   + Reporting imminent danger to client or others
   + Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company or to other relevant agencies.
   + Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision
   + Defending claims brought by client against licensee
7. To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services.
